D.D.of Oberlin College, May 23rd 1899. Text - John 6:63: It is the Spirit that quickeneth. No deeper words were ever spoken by our Lord. They touch the roots of individual and social life. We may well consider them at this Missionary Anniversary, for they express the fundamental principles of all our effort. In the belief that it is the Spirit only that giveth life, that the forces of Christian Faith, Hope and Love are essential to personal and national well-being, this Home Missionary organization has carried on its fruitful work for nearly three-quarters of a century, touching with divine vitality the ever-expanding domain of the Republic. It is this truth that has burned in the souls of those Christian men and women who have followed our civilization in its majestic march to the Pacific. In the light of it we may well review the victories of the past, study the problems and perils of to-day, and peer into the future with a wise, unfaltering Faith. From the beginning, American Christianity has given the supreme place to spiritual forces, in the conviction that man's foremost need is the renewal of his nature by the spirit of God. The largest influence in our national life has been the Christian teaching and temper, which have lead the churches to seek, first of all, the regeneration of the human soul and the...
