We cannot hire labourers, and our neighbors will not assist us unless we treat them with strong drink. it is nearly certain that no man in a christian country ever said this without slandering his neighbors. We know in deed, that the poor Indian on whom the light of the Gospel has never shone----at the moment when that hell which he carries in his bosom, is set on flame with whiskey, would shoot you if you would. not give him more: but when sober a refusal would neither endanger your life nor property. And do you believe that your neighbors are so much worse than savage, that even when you pay them an equivalent for their labour, they will not assist you unless you feed them with stimulating drink No. The fact that you continue to live in hear of as so dangerous....
