ENLISTEEDX PERIENCE THE the Marine Corps example and created a new billet whose occupant was responsible for advising the Chief of Staff on all matters affecting the enlisted force. In the Marine Corps this individual is known as the Sergeant Major of the Marine Corps; in the Army, the Sergeant Major of the Army; in the Navy, the Master Chief Petty Officer of the Navy; and in the Air Force, the Chief Master Sergeant of the Air Force. 1961, In in the spirit of corporateness and with pride as the holders of special and highly developed skills, the Air Forces NCOs founded their own professional organization, known as the Air Force Sergeants Associa-tion The is open to all active duty and retired enlisted (AFSA). AFSA members of the Air Force, Air National Guard, and the Air Force Reserve. Over the years this organization has become a strong and vocal advocate for the rights and entitlements of Air Force enlisted personnel, especially in the halls of Congress. In addition, the organization publishes its own magazine, administers a scholarship program, conducts seminars to aid individuals in making the transition from military to civilian life, and works to develop a museum dedicated to the heritage of the Air Force enlisted force. 16 Along with growing professionalism, an environment of significant, often turbulent, change influenced the experiences of everyone who served in the Air Force over the past four decades. In the decades of technologi-cal revolution, jets replaced propellers, computers and hand-held calcula-tors replaced typewriters and slide rules, and advances in telecommunica-tions made instantaneous worldwide communications a reality....
