But we now want another kind of letter--and we want it from each of our readers. We want a letter of discriminating criticism. We wish to know what it is in this periodical that you most like, what it is (if anything) that you dislike, and what changes of matter and manner you think would work an improvement. Our aim is to make the California Outlook more interesting, informative and helpful, and to extend its circle (f readers. You can aid us in fulfilling this aim...
