There has been for ages now a very great difference of opinion as to the meaning of this remarkable utterance of our Lord. You will remember that it forms part of a special address to the Apostle Peter, and that it only occurs once in the whole of the New Testament. It is recorded by St. Matthew, and by St. Matthew alone. The utterance was called forth by Peter s response to a question of our Lord, the question being, Who say ye that I am? And Peter answered, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus then addressed him in a specially solemn way, singling him out, as it seemed, from the rest of the disciples.
