

Office Girl: A Romantic Comedy and True Story about the Terrible Jobs One Reader and Writer Suffered After Majoring in English

By Carey RavenStar Robin

Serpentine Tales, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Office Space meets Sex and the City when one chronically underemployed English teacher settles on a job at a corporate office. In humorous essays on teaching, life in a dull office, and romantic escapades, Carey RavenStar Robin continues to search for the perfect job and perfect romance. * * * Excerpt * * * Interviewing To get hired at America s Vision and Dental, I had to go on five separate interviews. First the HR woman interviewed me, then the manager, then the V.P. of public relations, then the Director of Compliance, and finally a panel of people from the whole office. I had to come in three different times for the five interviews. Little did I know that in the four years I d be at AVD, I d report to seven different people. This is why I can t get anywhere in life. Well, it s one of the many reasons. I am terrible at interviews. I am thoroughly convinced that I got this job because AVD was worse than me at interviews. They were...
